INNOVATIVE CAPITAL SPONSORS THE CALIFORNIA HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION'S 22ND ANNUAL RURAL HEALTH CARE SYMPOSIUM

SPRINGFIELD, PA and SACRAMENTO, CA: (February 28, 2007) - InnoVative Capital is pleased to announce its sponsorship of the California Hospital Association's 22nd Annual Rural Health Care Symposium - Rural Renaissance: Revitalizing California's Rural Health System.

"We are very grateful to InnoVative Capital and our other conference sponsors," commented Milda Illiscupidez, Conference Planner, California Hospital Association, "their generous support helps to ensure the success of our educational programs."

The conference will be held in Sacramento, California from February 28th through March 2nd. Speakers at this rural healthcare summit will include executives from the American Hospital Association, university professors, consultants and other rural healthcare experts.

"It is our pleasure to join other leading organizations in sponsoring such an important conference," stated Alan Richman, President and CEO of InnoVative Capital.

InnoVative Capital is a banking and financial advisory firm specializing in construction and permanent financing for hospitals. With tailored representation of rural, community and critical access hospitals we can best meet the unique financing challenges that differentiate small hospitals from tertiary care facilities and health systems. Offering broad access to capital markets at attractive rates and terms; InnoVative Capital acts as financial advisor or mortgage banker for FHA 242 financings, municipal bond transactions, USDA loans, commercial loans and equity deals.
